The continuing austerity measures imposed by government have created intense financial difficulties for councils and forced tough decisions. I will continue to fight vigorously for a fairer deal for Derby. But I don’t want this to be the only story for Derby.

I am hugely proud of this city and will never tire of saying it. I’ve seen Derby grow in confidence and our city centre has benefitted from huge investment in recent years, with the Council taking a leading role in making much of this investment happen. What happens in our city centre determines the direction of travel for Derby as a whole – it is a vital hub for jobs, services, culture, leisure, transport links and community activity. Building on the regeneration and development successes of recent years is a key priority for the Council and we are committed to working in partnership with residents, stakeholders and businesses to create and deliver plans for the next 15 years.

We must not allow today’s difficulties to restrict our hopes for the future. That’s why this City Centre Masterplan is so important, and why I want residents, businesses and partner organisations to read our initial ideas and proposals and feedback their views.

I commend this document to you and look forward to hearing your ideas and feedback.

Councillor Ranjit Banwait  Leader, Derby City Council
The Masterplan sets out a strategic context for investment opportunities in the city in the next 15 years. It demonstrates the Council’s commitment to regeneration of the city centre. It also projects the successful partnership approach the City is willing to take in building the future.

This City Centre Masterplan is envisioned by the Vibrant City Partnership, a sub-group of Derby Renaissance Board, which has a wide ranging membership including key organisations and businesses in the city centre as well as representatives from the Business Improvement Districts (BIDs). It has been informed by the Council’s budget setting process, existing evidence base reports and current initiatives and reviews being carried out by the Council and its partners.

The draft Masterplan puts forward ten key ambitions which together will create a virtuous circle of vibrancy and economic growth, ensuring the continuing regeneration of the city centre.

Key amongst these ambitions is the intention by the Council to re-invent the Market Place and its immediate environs as the ‘heart’ of the city centre.

The final document will be accompanied by a delivery plan identifying a number of actions to be carried out by the Council and partner organisations in the next three years to be able to deliver the key ambitions identified in the document.

We look forward to hearing your views during the consultation period. Information on how you can get in touch with us online, by post or by telephone is at the end of this document.

Epilogue

Derby, the UK’s no.1 hi-tech city, is at the heart of the country’s aerospace, rail and automotive sectors and home to an expanding network of advanced technology businesses and professional consultancies. Derby also has a thriving commercial office scene, and flourishing creative sector. Businesses are operating in international markets, and the city is widely known for its innovation and R&D. Derby’s economic performance is amongst the strongest cities outside the South-East of the UK.

Derby has a unique offer for business and tourist visitors, which combines the industrial heritage embodied in the Silk Mill and Derwent Valley Mills World Heritage Site, a contemporary, thriving cultural and leisure scene and easy access to the beautiful landscapes and outdoor experience of the Peak District.

In this context, having a vibrant city centre is crucial in ensuring that the wealth created in Derby is retained here, encourages further investment and ultimately benefits Derby’s residents, businesses and visitors. The ambitions contained in this Masterplan comprehensively describe how we can create and sustain an attractive, thriving and vibrant city centre.

Delivering the 15-year vision will reinforce Derby’s position as a global city and UK capital for innovation, attracting international investment. The Masterplan will also boost Derby’s role as a great place for visitors and a great base from which to explore the nearby Peak District delights.

The Derby Renaissance Board has been delighted to help shape this Masterplan and look forward to supporting the delivery of the vision and ambitions within.

David Williams  Chair, Derby Renaissance Board
